LETTERS TO THE EDITOR,
THE HINDU,
Anna Salai,
M A D R A S 600 002.

Dear Editor,

Mr. R.K. Narayan is one of the eminent and well known popular Indian writers in English. He is worth winning a Nobel Prize. He is a typical Indian who puts forth his originality in bringing out the Indian situation to a reality with Indian Village culture.

His efficient works are telecasted weekly once in the National Programme. Non-Hindi speaking Indian brothers are not able to enjoy the telecast.

As a responsible Citizen of India, I request the Doordarshan authorities to take necessary steps to telecast the programme in English, so that the whole Indian Nation can benefit by his works.

My appreciation and thanks to "Hindu" for their publication of the symphosis.

Yours sincerely,

(S. RADHAKRISHNAN).
General Secretary,
Tamil Nadu Kamaraj Congress.
